

EASTERN NEWS—DATES TO 20TH.

New York, 19.—A Niagara Falls telegram says: C. C. Clay, of Alabama, Jacob Thompson, of Miss., Beverly Tucker, of Va., and Geo. N. Sanders are at that place devising a basis of action for the Chicago Convention, which shall end the war and secure a triumph for the Union.

2. The assumption of the Confederate debt.
3. Recognition of the freedom of the slaves actually emancipated in the progress of the war and the statu quo ante bellum as to all others.

Sunday evening our forces were seven miles beyond Staunton in pursuit of the rebels, who are making rapid time up the Shenandoah Valley towards Staunton. Heavy firing on the 17th at Great Falls, towards Edward's Ferry.

The rebels' loss in the demonstration on Washington is over 2,000.

The Herald's James river correspondent, under date of 14th, says the rebels shelled Gen. R. B. Foster's headquarters at Steep Bottom. The headquarters were moved seven times. A number of shells went through the General's tent. They also opened fire on a gunboat which returned the fire and soon silenced the battery. Grant was having an interview with Foster when the shelling took place.

This Tribune's Washington special says, it is thought that Secretary Fessenden will very soon go to the people for a loan, at par, at six per cent.

Chicago, July 19.—Reports in regard to another invasion of Kentucky, say the force variously estimated at from 5,000 to 15,000 entered the State via Pound Gap, and are at Martindale. A Cincinnati telegram says there is authority for contradicting the reported invasion of Kentucky.

Fortress Monroe, July 18.—Richmond papers contain the following telegrams:

Atlanta, July 12.—The enemy are in position on the north side of the Chattahoochee. There is some firing between the sharpshooters with an occasional artillery firing.

Atlanta, July 13.—The enemy are re-crossing the river in the rear of Roseville. Gen. Sherman's headquarters are at Vinings Station.

The Atlanta Confederacy says: "We shall not attempt to lull our readers into fancied security by the declaration that Atlanta is not in imminent danger. Its capture, however, cannot be regarded as a foregone conclusion. If Johnston cannot make a successful battle, or hold the enemy in check along the Chattahoochee, he cannot do so anywhere below, and can only temporarily check them, which, in that event, would be the defeat of Atlanta—placing it at the feet of its invaders to stay their appetites for conquest. Doubtless the Federal Government would be satisfied with the capture of Atlanta, which they would garrison, fortify, and use as a base of future operations."

The Richmond Whig of the 18th says: Sheridan with two brigades of cavalry is moving towards Portsmouth. Some think they are going towards North Carolina; others, that they will embark at Portsmouth for Maryland.

Cairo, July 19.—Accounts of Gen. Slocum's expedition in Mississippi are very meagre. The rebels claim to have gained a decided victory. They say the road of Federal retreat was lined for miles with the Federal dead—literally strung with dead negroes, horses, arms, etc. Vicksburg dates to the 13th say: Slocum has been reinforced, and again marching to the interior.

St. Louis, July 19.—A public letter from New Orleans of the 11th, says: Fifteen thousand men would start from that city on the ocean steamers that day, taking 15 days' rations and ammunition. There is now a large number of gunboats on Lake Pontchartrain, and more vessels have been added to the fleet off Mobile. Some think the expedition is intended to capture Mobile and so command the Alabama river, and establish a base of supplies for Sherman at Selma.

Farther Point, July 18.—The Damascus from Liverpool and London arrived the 8th, has arrived. Rumors favorable to Grant, caused an increase in the Federal loan 2 or 3 per cent. The Times says it is difficult not to conclude that the campaign is now reduced to the question, Petersburg or nothing?

San Francisco, July 20.—A dispatch received from Ridgeley Greathouse, gives his escape from Fort Lafayette into Canada. Gold was from 2.62 to 2.67 in New York yesterday.

Arrived.—Bark A. L. from Philadelphia, with ten 11-inch guns, 2500 shells and other munitions.

New York, July 20.—It is reported in official circles and believed, that Stanton has resigned. The cause appears to be quarrels which grew out of the attack on Washington, Blair charging incompetency and cowardice upon Stanton and Halleck for the want of management during the raid. Among the candidates mentioned to succeed Stanton, are Senator John Sherman and Gen. Schenck.

The burning of Postmaster Blair's house by the rebels had led to other than Cabinet complications.

The Herald's Fortress Monroe Correspondent says: The enemy are attempting to blockade the James river. A flag of truce boat was opened on by batteries below City Point, compelling her to return to Bermuda Hundred. Gens. Grant and Butler shortly afterwards ran these batteries, the boat narrowly escaping a Whitworth ball.

The Tribune says: We learn that General Hunter has demanded to be relieved of the command of the Department of West Va. Officers express themselves satisfied that a large portion of Johnston's forces have gone to reinforce Lee in Virginia, and that Atlanta will fall into our hands without a struggle.

The friends of Gen. Hunter are confident the General was correct in quitting Shenandoah Valley and returning to Kenawha valley for supplies.

New York, July 19.—Secretary Fessenden will soon issue proposals for a more extensive loan than 50 millions. The confidence in the Government by the bankers of New York is among the most gratifying features of his visit to that place. Secretary Fessenden will put a loan of hundred millions on the market.

Philadelphia, July 19.—Damage done to the railroad has been repaired. Trains are running regularly to and from Washington.

The Army of the Potomac correspondent of the Press says that the artillery fight on the 15th lasted two hours, when our shells burst directly over the rebel embrasures, destroying their cannon and forcing them to retire. They lost 6 guns.

Works lately occupied by the enemy, barring our advance to Petersburg, have been destroyed.

Fortress Monroe, July 18.—Our men as fast as captured by the enemy are removed to Ga. The Richmond Enquirer of the 16th has the following:

"Atlanta, July 14.—Two brigades of Yankee cavalry crossed the Chattahoochee at Moore's bridge, nine miles north, last night. They were met by Armstrong's brigade of cavalry, driven back and the bridge burned.

Charleston, July 10.—The enemy have evacuated Johnson's Island. Transports busy moving troops to Morris Island. The bombardment of Sumter is still kept up."

Louisville, July 19.—The steamer St. Louis hence to Nashville, laden with Government stores, was burned yesterday by guerrillas near Clarksville, Tenn., to be shot in retaliation for the murder of two Union men near those two places.

Memphis, July 18.—On the 5th of July, Gen. Washburne sent a force of infantry, cavalry, and artillery, to La Grange, Tenn., under Maj. Gen. A. J. Smith, with instructions to pursue Forrest, bring him to bay, fight and whip him. A dispatch from Smith to Washburne, received to-day, says: I have met Lee, Forrest and Walker at Tupelo, Miss., and whipped them badly on three different days. Our loss is small to that of the rebels.

A scout since arrived at La Grange, reports the enemy's loss at 2,500 and their defeat overwhelming. It is also stated by persons who have come in, that the rebel Gen. Faulkner and Col. Forrest were killed; Gen. Forrest was wounded in the foot, and his horse, with his equipments captured.

From other sources we learn that Smith met Gen. Forrest at Pontotoc, Mississippi, on Wednesday the 13th, and fought that day, also Thursday and Friday, driving him below Tupelo, whipping him badly in five different battles. Our loss is said to be 300, while the rebels' is over 2,000.

Washington, 19.—Sherman announces on the 18th having crossed the Chattahoochee with his whole army. He advanced five miles south of the river and crossed Beech Tree creek. This move necessarily forces Johnston into the defenses of Atlanta, and places that city within range of Sherman's guns. Subsequent to re-crossing the Chattahoochee Sherman has occupied his troops in tearing up railroads most important to the rebels.

Chicago, 20.—A letter from Sherman's army says, the 11th and 12th Corps have been consolidated, forming the 20th Corps, under Hooker.

The Great Eastern left London on the 10th to take on the Atlantic cable.

DATES TO THE 18TH

Washington, July 14.—The reports from the army of the Potomac say the rebels have maneuvered their troops in a manner which seems to augur an attack on our rear. Hill's corps was massing around our left with the intention, military men say, of getting in our rear. On the 12th they made a demonstration on Jerusalem road, but being confronted by an ample force changed their design.

New York, July 15.—The latest Petersburg news to the 13th, says heavy skirmishing is going on.

Chicago, July 16.—The Nashville Union says that advices confirm the crossing of the Chattahoochee, and a lodgment of our forces on the south bank.

An arrival from City Point to-day reports considerable skirmishing going on for several days. Gen. Sheridan with his cavalry have gone on another raid. Gen. Franklin escaped and came into our lines to-day.

The Richmond Examiner of the 9th says a portion of Grant's forces have gone up York river and were landing at White House.

The Examiner thinks that a portion of the forces were left at Williamsburg, Yorktown and Gloucester Point. Also that Grant must make a move of the same kind owing to circumstances to which it need not refer.

Gold in New York on the 15th, was 2.51; on the 16th, 2.54.

The rebels are moving their supplies to Angus, fearing a capture. Another report says that Johnston is falling back to Secar Bluff, eight miles from Atlanta.

Washington, July 18.—The President has issued a Proclamation calling into the service of the United States 500,000 men. It is further ordered that after the 5th day of September, 1864, being fifty days from the date of the Proclamation, a draft for troops to serve for one year, shall be held in every township and the wards of city, precincts of election districts, or a county subdivided, to fill its quota which may not be filled by volunteering at that date.

New York, July 18.—La France, a rebel organ in Paris, says Capt. Semmes is going to the Springs in Germany to recruit his health. His First Lieutenant has been recommended to take his place on a new pirate.

The Times' Paris correspondent says: The two new frigates built have been purchased by Prussia, so that if Semmes' successor gets a new vessel it must be from England.

Washington, July 17.—The further pursuit of the rebel raiders has been abandoned, and they will probably succeed in reaching Chambersburg (a mistake in name of town.—Ed.) in safety with their plunder, unless interrupted between Staunton and Lynchburg. Persons residing near the Gap say the rebel train was mostly composed of all sorts of vehicles filled with a variety of plunder. Over 7,000 head of cattle, horses, mules, and a large drove of sheep and hogs were sent through the Gap by the rebels previous to their retreat, and were pastured in the meadows along the river until the withdrawal of the main body of the command which was early on Tuesday morning. Several hundred wounded in carriages and ambulances were brought through the Gap; among them were one brigadier general and several colonels, besides a number of officers, the most of whom had been wounded in the battle of Monocacy.

The Government has been put in possession of the strength of the invading force of Maryland. They comprised in all about 13,000 men. Rebel officers acknowledge the loss at Monocacy at over 10,000 killed and wounded—most of them by a charge of a brigade of the 6th corps. The Colonels commanding the 69th Louisiana and 12th Georgia regiments were killed in this charge.

The Baltimore and Ohio railroad will be in running order to-morrow.

The World's special says: There is no decisive news of the pursuit in Virginia of the rebel forces lately threatening Washington. It seems to be conceded that they have made good their escape.

Louisville, July 16.—The Nashville Times says that there has been no pursuit of the rebels and no advance from the south bank of the Chattahoochee.

Passengers from Nashville state that it was rumored that Sherman had taken 6,000.

Southampton, July 10.—Information from good authority leads to the belief that pirate Semmes and part of his crew have obtained the steamer Rappahannock and intend to sail at an early day from a some French port. It is also stated that they will attack the Kearsage.
